WILMINGTON POLICE PIPES & DRUMS

The Wilmington Police Pipes and Drums Corps provides traditional bagpipe music for a variety of ceremonial occassions. The Corps serves the Police Department by performing at officer/employee involved funeral and memorial events, other ceremonial functions, and other events as approved by the Chief of Police.

Members of the Pipe & Drum Band includes regular members of the Police Department as well as volunteers from the community.

The band practices are held each Wednesday at 4:30 p.m. at WPD Headquarters. Anyone interested in joining the band or interested in Bagpiping or Drumming training may contact Lt. Hinson by email at matt.hinson@wilmingtonnc.gov or by phone at (910) 470-3615.

Any donations or performance fees earned by the band are placed into a special revenue fund and used for pipe band equipment and supply expenses.
