The United States Marshals Service
&
The Wilmington Police Department
Eastern District of North Carolina

United States Marshals Service
Violent Fugitive Task Force
News Release

For Immediate Release
May 11, 2005

Contact: Lt. Marshall Williamson (910) 343-3678
Lt. Marshall Williamson will be available this afternoon at 4:30 p.m. for a brief news conference at Police Headquarters.

The Wilmington Police Department announces the capture of 21 year old Jason Gary, of 1099 Love Alley, Wilmington, N. C. . Gary was wanted for the April 9, 2005 murder of Shamarr Brown outside of Westfield Shopping Mall.

On April 18, 2005 arrest warrants were issued against Gary for First Degree murder and assault with a Deadly Weapon With Intent to Kill. On April 19, 2005, the United States Marshals Service Violent Fugitive Task Force in Wilmington, NC accepted the case and started looking for Gary.

The intensive fugitive investigation spanned the East Coast of the United States. Gary fled Wilmington, NC after the shooting to New York City. This information was sent to the Marshals Service Fugitive Task Force in New York.

Today, at 10:30 a.m. the United States Marshals Service Fugitive Task Force in Jacksonville, Florida located Gary in 8433 Southside Blvd. apt. 2110 in Jacksonville, Florida and arrested him without incident.