Riverfront Park Sales Rules and Regulations

Riverfront Park Sales Rules and Regulations

- 1) Items to be offered for sale and sold by the seller must be made by hand and on site. Examples include sketches, jewelry, woven textiles.
- 2) Sales are permitted in downtown parks – Riverfront, Bailey’s Theater and Bijou park
- 3) Please note the blue stars painted on the pavement in Riverfront Park. They are located closer to the river. June 2009, vendors are required to set up 15’ from the curb, adjacent to each of the blue stars. Vendors may also set up on two blue stars that are located behind the visitors’ center and four that are located further up at Mutters Alley and Water Street. Each area provides a small 8’X8’ space for a vendor to set up a table and umbrella (use your imagination to move the blue stars that are located across from the federal building within the 15’ easement from the curb along the park).
- 4) Sales are not permitted in any area in which an authorized festival or official event is underway unless the seller has made an arrangement with the organizer or manager of the festival or event and shows this in writing to the Downtown Services office.
- 5) Alternative spots are marked with blue stars and are located outside of Riverfront Park event areas located behind the visitors’ center plaza area and four are located on Water at the Mutters Alley. There are some additional spots marked with blue stars in Bailey’s Theater Park and there are a few spots in Bijou Park. .
- 6) Sales are permitted between 10 am and 10 pm (four consecutive hours). Vendors setting up prior to 10:00 am may be asked to vacate the premises for the day.
- 7) A salesperson may not block or obstruct the free movement of pedestrians. A police officer, fire official, or city representative may disburse any portion of a crowd that blocks public passage.
- 8) A salesperson shall pay an application fee (includes a background check) payable to The City of Wilmington.
