

Black Bears Trip!

Join us on a trip to learn about black bears, birds & other wildlife.

Cost: $95 (transportation & lodging included) Deadline: November 1

Friday, November 8 Exploring Eastern North Carolina

7 a.m. Depart for Lake Mattamuskeet

11:30 a.m. Arrive at Lake Mattamuskeet
(Bag Lunch)

12 p.m. Discover the history of Lake Mattamuskeet while exploring various habitats at the refuge. We will observe birds and wildlife along Refuge Drive and various observation points.

4:30 p.m. Arrive at Eastern 4-H Conference Center in Columbia, NC

5:30 p.m. Dinner

7 pm - 9 pm Black Bear presentation focusing on the biology, natural history, human interactions and management of black bears in North Carolina. Bio facts will be available to observe.

Saturday, November 9 Black Bear Observations

Sunrise Arrive at Pocosin Lakes NWR to observe black bears, scat, tracks and signs. We will explore different areas of the refuge and have many opportunities to observe other wildlife as well.

Noon Lunch in Washington, NC

2 p.m. Depart for Wilmington

5 p.m. Arrive at Halyburton Park

Halyburton Park

4099 S. 17th St, Wilmington | 910.341.0075

www.halyburtonpark.com