- (a) Registration.
1. Property owners shall register each establishment annually with the city of Wilmington.
 2. A registration number shall be assigned to each registered establishment, which shall be clearly noted along with any advertisement for lodging.

- (b) Any use for which there are three (3) final determinations of violations of the City Code and/or criminal convictions related to the parcel (on, adjacent to, or within the property) by a property owner, tenant, guest, host, lessee, or individual otherwise related directly to the property within any rolling three hundred sixty five (365) day period, shall constitute a violation of the terms of registration and shall terminate registration. For any registration that is terminated due to code/criminal violations, a property owner shall be ineligible for registration for a period of three (3) years.
- (c) A property owner, as well as any host/operator, shall: 1) be responsible for ensuring compliance with all federal, state, and local laws, including, but not limited to tax code, building code, fire code, and environmental health regulations for the level of occupancy of the short-term lodging; and 2) not allow any party, event, classes, weddings, receptions, or other large gatherings on the premises.
- (d) Property owners shall be responsible for keeping in full force and effect during all times the unit is used as a short-term lodging or homestay commercial general liability insurance with a total limit of not less than $500,000 each occurrence for bodily injury and property damage.
- (e) Written notice shall be conspicuously posted inside each short-term lodging unit setting forth the following information:
 - 1. The name and telephone number of the host/operator.
 - 2. The address of the lodging, the maximum number of overnight occupants, and the day(s) established for garbage collection.
 - 3. The non-emergency phone number of the city of Wilmington Police Department.
 - 4. The annual registration documentation.
 - 5. That parties, events, classes, weddings, receptions, and other large gatherings are not permitted.
- (f) The host/operator shall ensure that all refuse is stored in appropriate containers and set out for collection on the proper collection day(s) and the carts removed from the street or alley on the scheduled collection day, in accordance with Section 10-14 of the City Code.
- (g) Preparation and service of food by host/operators for guests shall be prohibited. No cooking shall be permitted in individual bedrooms.
- (h) Short-term lodging uses shall be prohibited on the ground floor of street-facing facades, excluding alleys, except within any properly permitted single-family, duplex, triplex, quadraplex, and multifamily structures existing at the time of the adoption of this ordinance.

Sec. 18-330. Homestay lodging in residential, multifamily, and historic districts.

Homestay uses are permitted in single-family zoning districts, including all of the R districts, the HD, HD-R, HDMU districts, and in all of the MF districts.

Homestay lodging uses shall only be allowed in lawfully permitted dwelling units serving as the principal residence of a host. Only a property owner may register a homestay lodging; however, the principal resident may act as a host. Homestay lodging uses do not include bed and breakfast lodging uses.

- 1) Registration.
 - (a) A property owner shall register each establishment annually with the city of Wilmington.
 - (b) Registration is restricted to a property owner, who shall provide proof of possession of the registered premises, and to natural persons only. A host may be the property owner or another principal resident.
 - (c) A registration number shall be assigned to each registered establishment, which shall be clearly noted along with any advertisement for lodging.
 - (d) Active registrations shall not expire, provided that a property owner shall renew registration on an annual basis. If a property owner fails to renew a registration, the registration shall be considered terminated by the property owner.
 - (e) Registration does not vest the premises or property owner with any rights. Registration terminates upon transfer of the property to another owner.
 - (f) Any bedroom rentals for periods of twenty-nine (29) days or less not properly registered as a bed and breakfast shall register as a homestay.
- 2) The maximum number of guest rooms allowed shall be one less than the total number of bedrooms in the dwelling unit, not to exceed three (3) guest rooms.
- 3) In the R-20, R-15, R-10, R-7, R-5, R-3, HD, HD-R, and HDMU districts:
 - (a) The host shall issue a parking placard to each guest parking on site.
 - (b) Guest parking shall be restricted to behind the plane of the front façade of the home, except on an existing improved parking surface existing at the time of the adoption of this ordinance.
 - (c) No more than three (3) motor vehicles owned or operated by patrons shall be parked onsite at any time.
- 4) The use provisions of this section are not subject to variance by the board of adjustment.
- 5) If there are three (3) final determinations of violations of the City Code and/or criminal convictions related to the parcel (on, adjacent to, or within the property) by a property owner, tenant, guest, host, lessee, or individual otherwise related directly to the property within any rolling three hundred sixty-five (365) day period, shall constitute a violation of the terms of registration and shall terminate registration. For any registration that is terminated due to code/criminal violations, the owner(s) of the property shall be ineligible for registration for a period of three (3) years.

- 6) Any property owner registering a homestay lodging, as well as any host, shall: 1) be responsible for ensuring compliance with all federal, state, and local laws, including, but not limited to tax code, building code, fire code, and environmental health regulations for the level of occupancy of the homestay; 2) not allow any party, event, classes, weddings, receptions, or other large gatherings on the premises.
- 7) Property owners registering a homestay lodging are responsible for keeping in full force and effect during all times the dwelling unit is used as a homestay lodging commercial general liability insurance with a total limit of not less than $500,000 each occurrence for bodily injury and property damage.
- 8) Homestay lodging registrants and hosts shall maintain records demonstrating that the home is a host's primary residence, the dates of rental for the previous three hundred sixty-five (365) days, and the number of renters. Such records shall be made available, upon request, to the City Manager.
- 9) The definition of "family" and the restriction of a minimum thirty (30) day rental period in the MF districts shall not apply to properly registered homestay lodging.
- 10) Written notice shall be conspicuously posted inside each short-term lodging unit setting forth the following information:
 - (a) The name and telephone number of the host.
 - (b) The address of the lodging, the maximum number of overnight occupants, and the day(s) established for garbage collection.
 - (c) The non-emergency phone number of the city of Wilmington Police Department.
 - (d) The annual registration documentation.
 - (e) That parties, events, classes, weddings, receptions, and other large gatherings are not permitted."
